

VYLANOUS BEATS

EXCLUSIVE LICENSE AGREEMENT

EXCLUSIVE

Producer / Licensor: Dylan Hicks p/k/a "Vylanous Beats" | Contact: vylanousbeats@gmail.com

CREATIVE POSITIONING

Vylanous Beats specializes in hip-hop aesthetics, rhythmic expression, and melodious instrumental compositions. This Exclusive License is the highest tier offered and transfers exclusive usage rights in the Beat to the Licensee, subject to the ownership disclosures below.

1. PARTIES & SUBJECT

This License Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into and becomes effective on the date of purchase (or the date signed below, whichever applies) by and between:

Licensor: Dylan Hicks, professionally known as "Vylanous Beats" ("Producer", "Licensor", "we", "us"); and

Licensee: the individual or entity that completes the purchase of this license and/or whose details appear in the signature section below ("Licensee", "Artist", "you").

This Agreement governs the use of the Vylanous Beats instrumental sound recording and underlying musical composition purchased by the Licensee (the "Beat"), as identified on the order confirmation, receipt, invoice, or download for the applicable transaction. It applies to any purchase of this license tier regardless of the platform, marketplace, or storefront through which the Beat is acquired.

LICENSE GRANT & USAGE TERMS

Ownership

Transferred to Licensee* (see Ownership & Sample/Loop Limitations)

Upon full payment, the Producer grants the Licensee exclusive rights to commercially exploit the Beat, removes the Beat from all storefronts and platforms on which it is listed, and ceases licensing it to new buyers. Any previously sold non-exclusive licenses for this Beat remain valid for those prior licensees.

OWNERSHIP & SAMPLE / LOOP LIMITATIONS *

Producer guarantee: Vylanous Beats will never license any Beat, non-exclusively or exclusively, where doing so contains an uncleared sample or a loop with restricted or non-transferable licensing terms.

Because Vylanous Beats productions use mixed sources, the scope of an exclusive transfer depends on the underlying elements of the specific Beat:

- Fully original Beats: All right, title, and interest in the master recording of the Beat is transferred exclusively to the Licensee, and the Producer's songwriter/publishing share is as set out below.
- Beats containing licensed samples or loops: The Producer transfers only the rights the Producer lawfully owns and controls. Any third-party sample or loop remains subject to its original license terms. Where a loop is used, the Producer warrants that its loop license permits exclusive resale of the derived Beat; loops with restricted/non-transferable terms are never sold exclusively.
- The Producer will disclose, on request, whether the specific Beat is fully original or contains licensed third-party elements before completing an exclusive sale.

The asterisk (*) on "Ownership: Transferred" reflects that exclusivity is granted to the maximum extent the Producer can lawfully convey for the specific Beat.

PUBLISHING & ROYALTY SPLIT

For this Exclusive License, the 50% non-exclusive publishing retainer does not apply. Unless the parties agree otherwise in writing, the parties adopt a default 50/50 songwriter / publishing split on any composition created using the Beat, with the Producer credited as co-writer (Dylan Hicks, Vylanous Beats). Master ownership of the resulting recording belongs to the Licensee.

PRODUCER CREDIT

Licensee shall include the following credit in all metadata, liner notes, and descriptions where reasonably possible: "Produced by Vylanous Beats". Where space is limited (e.g., social captions), "Prod. Vylanous Beats" is acceptable.

WARRANTIES & INDEMNITY

The Producer warrants that it has the right to grant this license to the extent of the rights it owns or controls. Except for the limited warranties expressly stated herein, the Beat is provided "as is". The Licensee agrees to indemnify and hold the Producer harmless from any claim arising out of the Licensee's use of the Beat beyond the scope of this Agreement, or from Licensee's own lyrical/vocal content.

GENERAL TERMS

- Term: Rights granted commence on payment and continue as specified for the applicable tier above, subject to the rights the Producer can lawfully grant.
- Platform-Independent: This Agreement applies to the purchase of the Beat through any marketplace, storefront, or direct transaction. Where a platform's own checkout terms also apply, this Agreement governs the scope of usage rights between the parties.
- Governing Law: This Agreement is governed by the laws of the Province of British Columbia, Canada.
- No Sale of Copyright (non-exclusive tiers): Ownership of the underlying Beat remains with the Producer. This is a license, not a sale of copyright.
- Entire Agreement: This document constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes prior discussions.

ACCEPTANCE

By completing purchase of this license and/or signing below, both parties agree to the terms of this Agreement.
